“Worship God”

Twice in the revelation given to him, John is reminded to “worship God” (Rev. 19:10; 22:9). Too many Christians focus more on self than on God in worship. We should never depart from the true purpose of our worship: honoring God. Take a look at the prescribed elements of worship and note how they all are to involve giving God glory.

- When we participate in SINGING, we are praising God. God desires that we sing to Him with melody in our hearts (Eph. 5:19). And we should greatly desire to praise Him, for He is our Maker.
- When we join in PRAYER, we are making our requests to God. God desires that we pray to him with holy hands (1 Tim. 2:8). And we should greatly desire to make requests to Him, for He is our Heavenly Father.
- When we partake of the LORD’S SUPPER, we commune with God. God desires that we do this remembering the great sacrifice of His Son on our behalf (1 Cor. 11:23-26). And we should greatly desire to commune with Him, for He is our Savior.
- When we add to the CONTRIBUTION, we are giving to God and His work. God desires that we do so with spiritual purpose and joy (2 Cor. 9:7). And we should greatly desire to give to Him, for He is our Sustainer.
- When we listen to the PREACHING, we are hearing God’s holy word. God desires that we listen with great respect and heed with our hearts (2 Pet. 1:19-21). And we should greatly desire to follow God’s word, for He is our Guide.

When we recognize just who and what God is, we will desire to worship Him in spirit and truth (John 4:24). Our attitude as we depart from our gathering together should not so much be “That was a great worship” as it should be “We worship a great God!” Let’s keep the focus where it belongs. Worship God!

- † Please pray for Tom Black's brother Howard Black as he is dealing with stage four cancer.
- † Anna Halstead is still at Marietta Memorial Hospital room 3305. She is doing some better, the excessive fluid is gone from her lungs. She does have pneumonia infection in both lungs which is uncommon. The doctor wants her to have a bronchoscopy to get a better look of where the infection is. Her oxygen level and heart rate are doing much better.
- † Sue Hardwick, Kathy Simmons' sister, is recovering well for the surgery
- † Please continue to pray for Phyllis DeLancey if she does not get better they will be putting a pacemaker in on January 27th.
- † Please continue to pray for the Kimes' adoption process
- † Bryan Tylor was admitted to CCMH for an abscess and blood clot in his lungs. He is in room 158. They still have not been able to start the new chemo yet.
- † Please keep Ronda Facemire's son-in-law in your prayers as he will have esophagus surgery in Pittsburgh

What is Flowing from Your Heart?

“May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit” Romans 15:13.

God is the “God of hope” and fills us with joy and peace, but something is required of us. Yes, grace and eternal life in Christ are gifts and we don't work for our salvation, but we are to “trust in him.” Faith is required on our part to take God at His Word and believe His promises in order to be filled with joy and peace. Then, and only then, will we overflow with hope. Plumb has a song on the radio right now speaking of how we need to exhale God's grace and love that we breathe in. And this is so true. We don't exist for us alone but to share with others everything that we've received from God. So, being “full of goodness, complete in knowledge, and competent to instruct one another,” God demands that we overflow to others. The truth is that we are always overflowing with something, whether it is “good things out of the good” or “evil things out of the evil” stored up in our hearts. The principle: “For out of the overflow of his heart his mouth speaks.” Your mouth tells on you.

What's flowing from your heart?
