"God Has An Place For You"

Ester is the story of a Jewish orphan girl raised by her uncle, Mordecai (Ester 2:7)

Her uncle Mordecai was a Jew and he had been taken into exile from Jerusalem. (Ester 2:6)

Have you ever had that feeling of being out of place?

- Many people that walk through the doors of our church buildings often have that feeling.
- Many members in our churches often have that feeling of being out of place

The experts say that every person must have at least 6 connections, friends or people that they can relate to or they will feel out of place.

How do you feel and respond when you leave your comfort zone and feel out of place?

- We need to step out of our comfort zone to help others the may feel out of place.
- Comfort may be a reason that so many people get satisfied with the churches they go to.

I wonder if Ester, an orphan girl with no father and no mother, being raised by her uncle, felt out of place when she went before the king to be the Queen. Let's look at Ester's story in Ester 2:8-20.

When you went out of your comfort zone and had success how did you feel?

- Ester defiantly went a long way out of her comfort zone and as Queen you know she was pleased.

Every time that I have gone out of my comfort zone I have learned a lot that has brought me closer to God.

Would you have known God's will for your life without going out of your comfort zone?

- Ester would have never been queen if she had not gone out of her comfort zone.
- I would not be your minister today if I had not stepped out of my comfort zone.

If I would have never stepped out of my comfort zone and walked to the front and asked to be baptized into Christ, I would not be a Christian and have no hope of heaven.

Be assured that God has a Place for each and every one of us in His will. It is our job to find it, and there may be a good chance even at the ages we are today that we still have not found the place that God has for us. Go With God Elvis

3...6...5.. Pray Everyday-

People always love for people to pray for them. Sometimes they may not even be very religious, but still want others to pray for them. Let us as a church keep praying for those we have selected. Please remember June is the month to send a note of encouragement to the person you have selected. Let them know that you are praying for them each and every single day.

Things you can do to share Jesus

- Keep some quarters in your car—Then when you see someone's parking meter about to expire drop in a few coins.
- When you park at the supermarket, offer to return someone else's shopping cart to the store.
- Look other people in the eye—show that you are genuinely interested in what they have to say.
- Send a hand written note to someone.
- Say to your server at the restaurant, "I'm about to say a prayer for my meal. Do you have a need that I can pray for?"
- Tell someone who is estranged from you that all is forgiven and forgotten.
- Visit with your boss—tell him that you appreciate him and will work harder to please him.
- Bring a case of bottled water to an outdoor event and share it with folks you don't know.
- Leave a copy of an inspirational book (like Muscle & Shovel) in the office lunchroom.
- When someone criticizes you, listen carefully. Don't become defensive. Seek to do better.
- Invite a friend to church.
- Write a letter to the editor about how your faith has changed your life.
- Leave change in the vending machine or the washer at the Laundromat.
- Bring candy for the little kids at church.
