The church that Jesus Built

As Christians, we try to live our lives like the Christians in the first-century church. One of the best scriptures to consider is Acts Chapter two. We see a church that is both scriptural and appealing to everyone.

Notice the rich spirituality present in the church:

- “They devoted themselves...to the prayers.” (2:42)
- “Awe came upon everyone” (2:43)
- “Day by day...they spent much time in the temple...praising God” (2:46-47).

Notice the warm fellowship:

- “They devoted themselves to the...fellowship (2:42)
- “All who believed were together and had all things in common” (2:42)
- “They broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts” (2:46)

Notice the sacrificial ministry:

“They would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need” (2:45)

Let's make it our goal to be just like the first-century church!
