Mom, How Do You Fill in the Blank?

By Adam Faughn

We are a nation of adjectives. We cannot just say something; we have to add descriptive words to make sure we get just the right sense of meaning in all that we are talking about. That seems to be especially true when it comes to describing people. One person is good, while another is friendly. Someone is kindhearted, while another is cruel. We are always describing people.

Today, we are celebrating mothers on the day set aside by our nation to honor them. It is always interesting to me to hear how people describe their mother. Nearly every time, there is a description. "She was a wonderful mother." "She is a mother who is always there for us." "She is a sweet lady." "She is always thinking of others first."

And on and on it goes. We almost never simply say, "She's my mom!" We constantly add something to honor her. Knowing that, moms need to ask how they are living their lives! What kind of description would others say about you? The virtuous woman of Proverbs 31 had children who "rise up and call her blessed" (v. 28), because she lived the right kind of life before them.

Moms, if your children were to write out what they think of you and leave blanks where the descriptive words go, how would you fill in those blanks? Your life will answer that question.

Mom, How Do You Fill in the Blank?

Mother's Love

*A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may
For nothing can destroy it or take that love away...
It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking...
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems...
It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation,
and it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation...
A many-splendored miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.*

A LESSON FROM CRAYONS:

We could learn a lot from crayons. Some are sharp, some are pretty, and some are dull. Some have weird names, and all are different colors, but they all have to live in the same box.

Mother's Day Humorous (but oh-so-true) One-liners:

- A Mother's love will go with her son whether he goes to the governor's chair or the electric chair.
- The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world.
- God could not be everywhere and therefore he made mothers.
- A mother is a person who seeing there are only four pieces of pie for five people, promptly announces she never did care for pie.
- There is only one pretty child in the world, and every mother has it.
- Sometimes the poorest woman leaves her children the richest inheritance.
- A mom forgives us all our faults, not to mention one or two we don't even have.
- A Freudian slip is when you say one thing but mean your mother.

Happy Mother's Day!
