Sunday Morning Message: Nothing Can Separate Us For God
Sunday Evening Message: The Problem we all Face-Ben Rominske

What is Your Gift to Him?

The Christmas holidays are here upon us, and the world around us is filled with the noble notions of gift-giving. “What am I going to get my spouse?” “Will my kids like this gift?” “What can I do for my boss and co-workers?” Giving gifts is a godly behavior, and we should all remember that our Lord said it is better to give than to receive (Acts 20:35). It is good to rejoice in giving!

But in all of our giving, did we remember to put God on our list? Did we remember to present ourselves to God as a living sacrifice (Rom. 12:1)? Did we think to walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him (Col. 1:10)? Did we remember to wrap up a huge present of thankfulness for salvation through Christ Jesus (Col. 1:12)?

In all the hubbub and scrambling to find the perfect present for those we love, did you remember to put the Lord on your list? Let’s remember Him today and every day for His indescribable gift (2 Cor. 9:15)!

Nothing Can Separate Us From God

We have come to one of the most _____ passages in Romans, which many consider the climax of the book:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:32: He who did not _____ His own Son, but delivered Him up for us _____, how shall He not with Him also _____ give us all _____?

Romans 8:34-35: Who is he who _____? It is Christ who died, and furthermore is also _____, who is even at the right hand of _____, who also makes intercession for us. Who shall _____ us from the love of Christ? Shall _____, or distress, or persecution, or _____, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Romans 8:38-39: For I am _____, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor _____, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other _____, shall be able to separate us for the love of _____, which is in _____ Jesus our Lord.
